

B.SC., NURSING – III YR
CHILD HEALTH NURSING

1. Articulate the modern approaches and principles in child care, including national and international policies and legislations related to child health and welfare.
2. Recognize the major causes of morbidity and mortality in children and apply appropriate preventive, promotive, and curative measures.
3. Define the roles and responsibilities of pediatric nurses in hospital settings, including pre and post-operative care and child health nursing procedures.
4. Explain the principles and stages of child growth and development, and provide appropriate parental guidance and nutritional care.
5. Provide comprehensive nursing care to normal and high-risk neonates, including neonatal
6. Apply the principles of integrated management of neonatal and childhood illnesses (IMNCI) in clinical practice.
7. Deliver nursing care for common childhood diseases and implement measures for their prevention, including immunization.
8. Manage behavioral, social, and psychiatric problems in children, and identify social and welfare services available for challenged children.

CHILD HEALTH NURSING – THEORY

| S.NO | COURSE | LEARNERS OUTCOME |
|------|-------------------------------------|--|
| 1. | CHILD HEALTH NURSING | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Explain modern concepts of child health nursing and articulate the impact of hospitalization on children and their families. 2. Describe national policies, programs, and legislation related to child health and welfare, and understand the rights of children. 3. Demonstrate proficiency in pediatric nursing procedures and pre and post-operative care for infants and children. 4. Identify the needs of children at different developmental stages and provide appropriate nutritional and play guidance. 5. Perform essential newborn care, neonatal resuscitation, and manage common neonatal problems including the care of low birth weight babies. 6. Provide nursing care for children with common nutritional, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular, genitourinary, neurological, hematological, endocrine, orthopedic, skin, eye, and ear disorders. 7. Respond effectively to child health emergencies such as poisoning, foreign bodies, hemorrhage, burns, and drowning. 8. Manage children with common behavioral and psychiatric problems, and provide support for mentally, physically, and socially challenged children. |

| | | |
|--|--|---|
| | | 9. Conduct developmental studies and field visits to child health facilities, applying theoretical knowledge in practical settings. |
|--|--|---|

CHILD HEALTH NURSING – THEORY

| S.NO | COURSE | LEARNERS OUTCOME |
|------|----------------------------|---|
| 1. | CHILD HEALTH NURSING | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Demonstrate knowledge of internationally accepted rights of the child and national policies and legislations. 2. Assess and document normal growth and developmental milestones in children from birth to adolescence. 3. Provide appropriate parental guidance based on the developmental stage and needs of the child. 4. Develop and implement nutritional plans for children, including breastfeeding, supplementary feeding, and weaning. 5. Perform essential newborn care and neonatal resuscitation accurately. 6. Manage the care of low birth weight babies and implement kangaroo mother care. 7. Apply the principles of IMNCI in the clinical setting. 8. Provide nursing care for children with nutritional deficiencies, respiratory disorders, gastrointestinal issues, cardiovascular problems, genitourinary disorders, neurological infections, hematological conditions, endocrine disorders, orthopedic issues, skin, eye, and ear disorders. 9. Implement preventive measures, including immunization, and manage child health emergencies such as poisoning, foreign bodies, hemorrhage, burns, and drowning. 10. Manage common behavioral and psychiatric problems in children. 11. Provide care and support for mentally, physically, and socially challenged children. 12. Utilize welfare services and resources effectively to support challenged children and their families. 13. Participate in field visits to child health facilities, such as Anganwadi centers and child guidance clinics, to apply theoretical knowledge in real-world settings. 14. Demonstrate proficiency in pediatric nursing skills through hands-on clinical practice and assessment. 15. Perform nursing procedures for common emergencies, including poisoning, foreign body removal, hemorrhage control, burn care, and drowning prevention. |

B.SC., NURSING – III YR
CHILD HEALTH NURSING – THEORY

| S.NO | COURSE | LEARNERS OUTCOME |
|-------------|-------------------------------------|--|
| 1. | CHILD HEALTH NURSING | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Provide nursing care of children with various medical disorders Counsel and educate parents 2. Recognize different pediatric surgical conditions /malformations 3. Provide pre and post operative care to children with common paediatric surgical conditions/ Malformations. 4. Counsel and educate parents 5. Perform assessment of children health development and anthropometric 6. Perform immunization Give health education/Nutritional education 7. Provide nursing care to critically ill children |